Formative steps were taken yesterday for the staging of the pageant. Members of the committee of arrangements called at the office of Col. W. W. Harts, engineer officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, and discussed with him the use of the Ellipse or a space on the Monument Grounds for the produc-tion. Since the net proceeds of the week's performance of "The Fire Re-gained" are to go to charity, it is not thought that there will be any objection to the use of one or the other of these grounds, though, of course, a charge will be made for the use of the seats in the stands which will be erected.

While the date for the production has not as yet been definitely determined. Saturday, May 16, is being considered as Saturoay, May it, is being considered as the date for the opening performance. It is hoped that the pageant will attract thousands of visitors to Washington and that it will be the means of adding to the Emergency Hospital Fund or some other worthy local charity of a nonsec-tarian nature.

One was from Elihu Root, who wrote that he would be glad to forego the privilege of his cigar in the executive session if it would make Mr. Tillman more comfort-

When Senator Tillman's resolution was put to a vote there was no demand for a roll call. It passed viva voce, and there was not a voice raised in opposi-cigar almost as much as former Speaker Cannon, leaned back in his chair and laughed heartly as Senator Tillman proceeded to castigate the smokers in the Senate.

Senator Tillman described the effects of tobacco smoke on himself when the doors were closed for an executive sessjon.

"I did not mind tobacco smoke formerly," said the Senator, "but since I was paralyzed, four years ago, it nauscates me. I do not remain during executive sessions any more than I can My Democratic colleagues are so intent on gratifying their feverish desire to smoke that they light cigars in the caucus. I have almost had to leave, for my life depends upon the full supply of pure air. So I am beset with the danger of being driven out of my party and out of the Senate by tobacco." Recounting the many who have died en fighting for his life, Senator said: ce he was stricken four years ago and "As I look around the chamber and see the changes that have come, and miss the old familiar faces. I feel as though I were serving with ghosts as well as living men. This great mortality among us is due to the way we live in Washington. There is a continuous succession of hanquetr, dinners, and receptions. Automobiles and street cars are used by Scrators instead of walking, and pure air and sunshine are things of which we get too little. We eat too much and too irregularly. A fitting epitaph for most of the Senators who have died in service would be, "He lived not wisely, but too well, and killed himself eating."
